Two wise men, walking down the road of Time, saw Tomorrow approaching dimly in the distance. They shouted, "Tell us Tomorrow, what are you like? Shall we fear you or feast you?" And Tomorrow answered, in tones that sounded clearly through the mist. "Come to me neither with anxiety nor with procrastination, but with faith and hope and with Today's work well-done. You cannot know ahead what I am like, but when you reach me you shall see me through the eyes of what you are."

DEDICATION

"This learned I from the shadow of a tree,
That to and fro did sway against a wall,
Our shadow selves, our influence, may fall
Where we ourselves can never be."

The integrity, friendliness, sincerity and thoughtfulness you have shown through your many hours of dedication to Richmond Technical Institute, have earned our respect and admiration.

We dedicate the 1976-77 VALIANT to you, Mrs. Clara Strickland and Mrs. Audrey Moore.

Editor's Page

As the work on the 1976-1977 VALIANT draws to a close, I am relieved that the deadlines have been completed but saddened to think that my job is almost over. Many long and hard hours of work have gone into the production of this yearbook. It is my hope that each person who looks at this will find something pleasing which he will remember and cherish in years to come.

Being editor is a very tough job but it is indeed a privilege. I have gained knowledge and many new friends. I hope that everyone I have come in contact with this year will see a little of themself in the 1976-1977 VALIANT.

I wish to thank these special people who helped to make this yearbook a success: Mr. Neill Graham for his verbal support when I lacked courage to speak for myself; Mr. John Wester for graciously using his time to help sell ads; the Annual Staff for all their hard work and many hours of worry; Nick Lovin who was able to put up with my crazy picture-taking schedules; Mr. Trent Strickland who gave me much support and listened to my problems; my family who supported all my efforts; Leonard who had to temporarily take a back-seat to the annual; and to the many others who contributed to the production of the VALIANT.

F.D.I.C.

the same year George Washington became our first President, an English textile mechanic named Samuel Slater arrived in America. It was, as time proved, a truly important chapter in American history.

You see, England's textile industry was far superior to ours. And the English didn't want their secrets to leak outside the country. Anyone who knew anything about textiles was forbidden to leave England. But Slater disguised himself as a farmer, because they were free to leave.

What Slater brought with him was an uncanny memory — he knew every detail of English textile machinery by heart. In less than two years, his cotton mill in Pawtucket, R. I., was spinning yarn and weaving fabric.

The American textile industry was off and running.

the same year Calvin Coolidge became our 30th President, Burlington Mills was formed in Burlington, N. C. A cornfield was cleared to make way for that first textile plant, employing 200 persons.

Today, Burlington Industries is the world's leading manufacturer of textiles and related products, operating 135 plants in the United States and other countries with some 70,000 employees. Burlington products include apparel fabrics and yarns. Socks and hosiery. Carpets, rugs, furniture, draperies, bedspreads, sheets, pillowcases, towels, lamps and decorative accessories. Industrial fabrics of all types. Thanks Sam.
